

The attached material and myself is self-explanatory.

WJM

I am sure you will understand why it was not everything. January 7, 1964 you had sufficient time, which is an error on the part.

In any event, I gather you were omitted from the need to keep Ed Jackson busy. It is suggested we make every effort to keep him busy with the committee and arrangements.

TO: J. G. Mullaly

In contacting Walt Disney on his participation in the key World's Fair events during April, Ted Mecke learned that John Sattler had already been in touch with the WED publicity man and locked in Disney for April 12, 14, and 22.
